

Pod Cookoffs

August 2005

A pod cookoff is a regular CASI-sanctioned cookoff whose organizer and promoter is a CASI pod. "Regular CASI-sanctioned cookoff" excludes championship events. Only those cookoffs that influence the state's required number of points to qualify for TICC, are eligible to be pod cookoffs.

In order to satisfy CASI Bylaws 13.01.(h), pod cookoffs must be advertised as " (Pod Name) Pod Cookoff".

The Pod has full authority over the funds raised by the cookoff. They may keep the proceeds, or donate them to another charity of their choosing.

CASI pods must work for the benefit and promotion of CASI chili (13.01.a. A successful pod cookoff is one way they can do it.
