Dry camping is available on a first come, first serve basis to spectators in Krazy Flats (spectator camping area).

There are no reserved sites; no water, electricity, or sanitary disposal available. Water is available for purchase at area RV Parks.

Limited motel rooms and RV parks are in the Lajitas, Terlingua, and Study Butte areas.

Portalets are on site beginning Wednesday of the cookoff week. Dumpsters will be provided for disposal of trash and garbage.

Ice, in 20 lb bags, is available for purchase from CASI's Ancira Main Concession and Krazy Flats Saloon (located in the spectator's area).

Food and beverage vendors are on site serving the main area as well as Krazy Flats. Don't worry about carrying your beer with you - buy ours at special case prices.

The Terlingua Fire/EMS is on site beginning Tuesday afternoon of the cookoff week. In the event of an accident or injury, the medics are located at CASI City Hall and/or by alerting security or CASI staff at the Ancira Main Concession Area or Krazy Flats Saloon. If a serious accident or injury occurs, the medics provide transport to either Alpine or Midland/Odessa hospitals, depending on the severity of the injury.

CASI contracts with Rio Bravo Security for services during the cookoff week. In addition, the Brewster County Sheriff's Department is on site. Security staff are on duty 24 hours a day and are stationed at City Hall. If you require security personnel, either go to City Hall or alert a CASI staff member at the Ancira Main Concession or the Krazy Flats Saloon,

A pay phone is available at the Ancira Main Concession area. In addition, a cell tower is on site serving most cell phone providers. Wi-Fi internet service is available at the Krazy Flats Saloon.

A Schedule of Events, as it becomes available, can be obtained from this website. Additionally, the schedule will be available in the Ancira Main Concession and at the Krazy Flats Saloon.

Entertainment is provided nightly on the main stage from 8:00 p.m. until midnight beginning on Thursday. The band this year is Doug Moreland.

The Ancira Main Concession and Krazy Flats Saloon carry a variety of items for sale, including but not limited to t-shirts, polo shirts, bumper stickers, lapel pins, caps, drink cups, etc. Take home your TICC souvenir!

On Thursday, there will be a BBQ Competition. Coordination of this competition, registration, judging, and announcements will be conducted at the Krazy Flats Saloon. Funds raised from this event are for the CASI National Scholarship Program. This function is sponsored by McCormick's Distilling Company. Anyone can enter this event. Cash prizes will be awarded

On Friday, CASI presents National Scholarship Day; a day devoted to raising funds for CASI's National Scholarship Program. Events include a hot wings contest, salsa contest and beans contest. For a nominal entry fee, ANYONE can enter these events. Cash prizes are awarded to the top 5 in each category and trophies presented to the top 10. Administration, judging, and announcements will be conducted in the Main Stage Area. The Bean Competition will be sponsored by Casa Fiesta Mexican Foods, a division of Bruce Foods Corporation. The Hot Wings is sponsored by Louisiana Hot Sauce, a division of Bruce Foods Corporation and the Salsa is sponsored by Mrs Renfro's.

Want to be a judge? Judges are needed for all the Thursday's BBQ Events, Friday Scholarship Day events, as well as the chili cookoff on Saturday. If you're interested in judging for any of the events, please contact CASI staff in the Ancira Main Concession or at the Krazy Flats Saloon. You can also sign-up in advance to judge the chili championship, by contacting Renee Moore at rmoore2142@att.net.

DO plan to have a good time while at TICC. There are few rules put in place and they are meant to provide a safe and secure environment for all.
